CALM AT SCENE OF FATHER'S MURDER

Peace Unaffected as Wife and Mother Weep—See Little Son Once Again.

Barre, N. H., Dec. 28.—Yesterday was a day of tears in Hamilton, the scene of the murder of Howard A. Fowler, a big man whose son, Morrison H. Fowler, is on trial charged with the crime. Judge Oliver W. Branch, the juror, attorneys, sheriff and the prisoner visited the little town to acquaint the jurors with the details of the place. The party was met at the station by Shirley Fowler, brother of the prisoner, who brought the latter's little black-haired son, aged four years, with him.

A few minutes later Morrison was in his wife's arms at the old homestead, while their other baby boy, Vard, was tugging at his coat tails. The wife and the mother of the murdered man broke down and wept bitterly as the prisoner surveyed the familiar scenes hallowed to Sheriff Carl Smith, Morrison, however, never faltered. He wept almost continuously.

After the party had visited the house they inspected the den across the road in which the murder took place. Atty.

Robert C. Murphy, for the government, and Atty. George Hill for the defense, explained the case points to the jurors. The boy's father was the next place seen, and several stops were made along the road. Judge Branch has decided to take action in the case of Junior Charles Ford, who watched away from the other 11 after they had been sent back to the courthouse Monday, and was found carrying into a shop window in Plummer street. Ford said that he didn't expect to be looked up until after the evidence was taken, and intended to stay with his wife, who is boarding here. His explanation was accepted.

ROOSEVELT ALLOWED $1,442 AGAINST BARNES

This Covers the Costs and Disbursements in Recent $50,000 Libel Suit in Albany.

Schenectady, N. Y., Dec. 28.—Former President Theodore Roosevelt yesterday was allowed $1,442 against William Barnes, Republican leader of Albany, as costs and disbursements in the recent trial in this city when the jury dismissed the $50,000 libel suit brought by Barnes. It was agreed by attorneys that Roosevelt could have expected $2,000 more because of the extraordinary length of the trial, but he asked only the actual court costs incurred. Justice William S. Andrews, who tried the case, also signed a new order refusing to act with the jury verdict and denying a new trial.
